AWARD SELECTION NOTICE

奖项评选通知

At the upcoming 2024 International Conference on Cultural Integration and Artistic Innovation (ICCAI), we are pleased to establish a series of Outstanding Paper Awards to recognize academic papers and projects that demonstrate excellence in scholarly research and innovative practice. Submissions and conference registration are now open, and the ICCAI 2024 Organizing Committee will select awards for participants who actively engage and excel during the conference to encourage academic exchange and recognize outstanding contributions.

Award Categories:

Outstanding Paper Awards

First Prize: Awarded to researchers whose papers demonstrate excellence in quality and innovation; recipients will receive a certificate.

Second Prize: Recognizes papers with notable achievements in research depth and unique perspective; recipients will receive a certificate.

Third Prize: Presented to works that show strong relevance to conference themes and overall quality; recipients will receive a certificate.

Excellence Awards: To encourage broader academic exploration and innovative thinking, several Excellence Awards will be given to papers that demonstrate exceptional performance in various aspects; recipients will receive a certificate.

Outstanding Oral Presentation Award

Each recipient will receive a commemorative certificate. Awards will be based on innovation, relevance, technical strengths, and presentation effectiveness.

Outstanding Poster Award

Each recipient will receive a commemorative certificate. Awards will be evaluated based on innovation, technical strengths, and design effectiveness.

Awards will be determined by the Conference Review Committee, with the number of awards and award formats based on the conference's actual circumstances. The Organizing Committee of the 2024 ICCAI reserves the final right of interpretation.
